

A Call To All Visual Artists!

Are you a Visual artist who is interested in participating in a celebration of water?

We are hosting an art exhibit for our local and international Indigenous elders and spiritual leaders and event participants at the 2014 Sacred Water Circle Gathering- and we are looking for local artists to be a part.

The Sacred Water Circle is a collective of multi-faith/ spiritual individuals who are working in response to a call out by global Indigenous Spiritual leaders to restore balance to our environment: Inspired by traditional Indigenous teachings and leading with hope and spiritual courage, the Sacred Water Circle sees a restored relationship between human communities and water.

The Exhibition opening event will take place Friday May 2nd , 7-9pm at Trent University in the Florence Benedict Gathering Space. Artwork will be displayed for the duration of the Gathering May 1st – May 4th, 2014. Artwork can be for sale with an option for a ___% portion of the proceeds to go towards the Water Awareness Walk in the Kawarthas May 10th, 2014.

If you are interested in participating (or have questions) please submit the following material to Corin Ford Forrester corinforrester@mac.com by March 31st:

- 1) An artist statement and or CV
- 2) Up to 3 jpeg images of artwork
- 3) a list of the three works, titles, date, medium, dimension of the work, price

Artists selected are highly encouraged to attend the opening on May 2nd. Those unable to deliver their work directly to Trent University May 2nd from 10am-1pm can deliver work to Christensen Fine Art 432 George N, Peterborough, ON K9H 3R5,(705) 876-9623 Friday April 25 - May 1. Likewise if artwork cannot be picked up Sunday May 4th organizers can transport art back to Christensen's where it can be re-claimed until May 11th.
