Aaniin Curve Lake Members

The Williams Treaty First Nations met on Saturday, November 19th in Rama First Nation to receive updates and information. Members of Curve Lake council, youth committee, elders, and Curve Lake membership attended with other First Nations of the Williams Treaty Nations.

Council will be hosting a member meeting to provide an update from this meeting in Rama, and requires your input for direction in relation to continuing the Williams Treaty First Nations' Claim.

Saga Williams, Claims Advisor and Karry Sandy Mackenzie, Coordinator for the Williams Treaty First Nations will be facilitating an update for members information and take questions related, in order to provide Curve Lake council direction to proceed on this claim. A meeting with the Williams Treaty First Nations Chiefs and Councils will meet again on December 2, 2016. At this meeting, each First Nation will announce their community direction to move forward.

It is an important and time sensitive issue and we encourage your attendance to provide your input. Miigwetch, Chief Phyllis Williams
