Ontario Aboriginal Summer Games Information Package

The Aboriginal Sport and Wellness Council of Ontario (ASWCO) is set to host the 2016 Ontario Aboriginal Summer Games for the first time. The Games will take place July 19-21, 2016 in Brantford and Six Nations. Aboriginal athletes, aged 13-18, born between 1998-2003 from all across Ontario will compete against their fellow competitors. The Games provide athletes with development and competition opportunities that will prepare them for 2017 North American Indigenous Games (NAIG).

The 2016 Ontario Aboriginal Summer Games will welcome athletes, coaches, managers, volunteers and officials from across the province for the three day event. The competition will be used a pre NAIG event. The games will be held at facilities in the Brantford and Six Nations of the Grand River region. The Summer Games will also give athletes the opportunity to compete in high performance type venues before NAIG, in hopes to further their comfort levels. The OASGs will also be a major identifier for NAIG for the provided sports.

OASGs Sports: Athletics, Archery, Canoe/Kayak, Golf, Lacrosse, Rifle Shooting, Swimming

The three days will be broken up to meet the needs of a range of athletes:

Day 1 (July 19): Fundamental Movement Skills -The first day will be used to give every athlete the ability to participate in three sports of their choosing. Athletes will pick three sports in advance they would like to try.

Day 2 (July 20): Training and Practice -The second day will narrow down the sports the athletes will focus on and they will be given detailed instruction in order to see a progression of skills. Athletes will select two sports for this day.

Day 3 (July 21): Competition Day -The third day will be full competition with no instruction. Athletes will select one sport they would like to compete in. Results will be recorded and medals will be distributed. For those athletes that are not available to attend the first two days, they are still eligible to attend the competition day.
