AS PART OF THE CURVE LAKE SPEAKER SERIES

Wednesday March 8th

Dinner: 5:00pm

Community Session: 6:00pm

Curve Lake Community Centre
20 Whetung Street
Curve Lake, ON

What's Going On: Ontario Archaeology

Julie completed a B.A. Hons. and M.A. in Anthropology, and her PhD, in Indigenous Studies, at Trent University. She also received a B.Ed. from University of Western Ontario focusing on multicultural education and taught in several Peterborough area high schools. She has worked as a sessional instructor for the School of Education and Professional Learning and the Indigenous Environmental Studies (IES) Program, both at Trent University. Julie has developed several courses for both Fleming College and Trent University that highlight Indigenous perspectives within environmental and archaeological settings. Her interests focus on relationship building between Indigenous and non-Indigenous peoples and their respective systems of knowledge as well as research ethics and protocol within Indigenous contexts. Julie prides herself on her ethic of inclusivity and strives to work with Elders and Traditional Knowledge Keepers on collaborative writing projects.

A catered dinner will be provided at 5:00pm for those who attend. Limited to 50 seats.
