CHAPTER 1 – RESPONSIBILITY

CHIEF AND COUNCIL

1. It is the responsibility of the elected Chief and Council of Curve Lake First Nation to ensure that Policies are in place for the transparent and equitable management of the Post-Secondary Education approved budget. It is also the responsibility of the Council to ensure that there is regular reporting to their membership on both the monetary and academic achievements against this investment.

FINANCE COMMITTEE

2. The Finance Committee has the responsibility to review and provide a recommendation to Council on the proposed budget for the Post-Secondary Program.

EDUCATION COMMITTEE

3. The Education Committee has the responsibility to review and make recommendations for policy change affecting the success of the program.

DIRECTOR OF EDUCATION

4. The Director of Education is responsible for the management of this policy.
The Director of Education is responsible to supervise the implementation of this policy by the Manager of Post Secondary and Adult Education and has the financial management responsibilities for the approved budget.

MANAGER OF POST SECONDARY AND ADULT EDUCATION RESPONSIBILITY

5. The Manager of Post Secondary & Adult Education is responsible for the administration of this policy and for maintaining a supportive relationship with the Learner's approved under this policy.

LEARNER

6. The individual Learner is responsible to attend and pass all required courses of their chosen program and to ensure the reporting requirements to the Curve Lake First Nation are met within the set deadlines. Marks must be submitted each semester.
7. The Learner is responsible to ensure all the requirements to receive Post-Secondary Learner Support are strictly followed and there are no false statements made.
8. The Learner is responsible to repay to Curve Lake First Nation any funding received for which they do not meet the eligibility requirements, or they fail to meet their obligations of this policy and the Post-Secondary Institute.

CHAPTER 2 – ELIGIBILITY

LEARNER ELIGIBILITY

9. To be eligible for Post-Secondary Learner Funding, each Learner must:
- (1) Be a Curve Lake First Nation member.
 - (2) Not be in receipt of post-secondary funding from any other First Nation.
 - (3) Be in good standing with Curve Lake First Nation Education Department.
 - (4) Be accepted into an eligible program of study.
 - (5) Complete the application in Appendix A, or the online application, by the deadline.
 - (6) Abide by this policy.

ELIGIBLE PROGRAM OF STUDY

10. An eligible program of study is:
- (1) Offered by a recognized and accredited Post-Secondary Educational Institute.
 - (2) Result in a recognized degree, diploma, or certificate.
 - (3) One that has a minimum standard of entry.
 - (a) IE. Secondary School Graduation Diploma, mature learner, etc.

CHAPTER 3 – TYPES OF SUPPORT

LIVING ALLOWANCE

11. This support is designed to offset the costs of daily living.
12. The level of funding is set in Appendix D.
13. To be eligible for a living allowance, a Learner must:
- (1) Be registered as a full-time learner.
 - (2) They must maintain full time status throughout their studies.
 - (a) Full time status is defined by the Post-Secondary Institution.
 - (3) All reporting requirements must be continuously maintained as required by CLFN.
14. Payment will be made by direct deposit to Learner's bank account five (5) business days before the month for which the payment is provided.
15. There are no advances of living allowances unless it is for residence fees.

TUITION ASSISTANCE

16. If a learner attends an out of province institution, tuition will be paid at the lower rate between the institution and a similar post-secondary public institution in Ontario nearest to Curve Lake First Nation hosting a similar program. Learners attending programs outside of Canada are responsible to pay the tuition fee directly to the institution and will be reimbursed in Canadian dollars with submission of receipt, not to exceed the determined rate of the similar post-secondary public institution in Ontario closest to Curve Lake First Nation.
17. Tuition assistance includes coverage for mandatory learner fees for the approved courses.
18. Letters of Sponsorship will be provided directly to the post-secondary institution upon approval.
19. Tuition assistance is provided directly to the institution.

20. Tuition payment is a formal agreement between the First Nation and the Institution. If the Institution provides a tuition waiver to a learner, the tuition amount will not be included in the budget for the individual learner. Other mandatory fees will continue to be paid to the institution under the sponsorship letter. This allows the Education Department to maximize the Post Secondary Student Support Program (PSSSP) funding for our community.

BOOKS AND PROGRAM COSTS

- 21. Amount for books and program costs are indicated in Appendix D.
22. Books and program costs are provided in each semester.
23. Learners that withdraw from a program must repay book allowances.

SPECIAL COSTS

- 24. Special onetime costs may be covered by Curve Lake.
25. Special onetime costs include but are not limited to:
 (1) Practicums.
 (2) Special exam fees.
 (3) Special equipment.
 (4) Emergencies.
 (5) Base Application fees for OCAS or OUAC with proof of payment.
26. A Learner must apply to the Education Department in writing detailing why the cost should be covered.
27. This cost is covered at the discretion of the Manager of Post Secondary & Adult Education if there is room in the budget.

SPECIAL LEARNING NEEDS

- 28. If an individual has supports identified by a professional through a Prior Learning Assessment these costs will be considered by application found in Appendix A.
29. Special learning needs include but are not limited to:
 (1) Special programming.
 (2) Specific teaching strategies.
 (3) Assistive technology.

COSTS NOT COVERED

- 30. The following is not reimbursed by Curve Lake:
 (1) Photocopying.
 (2) Tutoring; and
 (3) Field trips.

LEARNER'S FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

- 31. Learners that withdraw from a program must repay the tuition fees if the institution does not reimburse Curve Lake.
 (1) Learners must withdraw in writing from the institution for Curve Lake to be eligible for a tuition refund.
32. Learners that withdraw from a program or course must repay book and program costs.

- 33. If a Learner is unsuccessful in a course(s), the learner must repay all costs to CLFN.
- (1) The financial responsibility of that course(s) then becomes the learner's financial responsibility.
- 34. If a Learner withdraws for compassionate or medical reasons from a program of study for which funding has been approved, they must immediately notify the Manager of Post Secondary & Adult Education in writing.
- (1) Notification must include the reasons and request deferral of any funding. Deferrals will be allowed at the discretion of the Manager of Post Secondary & Adult Education. Learner will remain at their category and must submit an application when ready to resume studies.
 - (2) A Doctor or Medical note will be required to defer funding.
- 35. As defined in 9.3 a student must be in good financial standing with the education department to be eligible for funding. Therefore:
- (1) Repayment for any related tuition, book and living allowance for a dropped or unsuccessful courses/program of study must be paid prior to the learner being funded in a subsequent semester. The student is responsible for expenses related to re-taking the unsuccessful course(s).
 - (2) The student will develop a contract with the Manager of Post-Secondary and Adult Education to outline the plan for their repayment of fees.
 - (3) Should a student decide not to return to their studies in the following semester, they will be required to re-apply for funding following repayment of all fees owed to the department.
- 36. The Education Department is not able to reduce any subsequent student funding allocations as a method of repayment of tuition, book and living allowance incurred by the student because of any unsuccessful or dropped courses/program of study.
